The leaked Commonwealth report

the ‘Asim Law’ imposed upon the country,

USPA NEWS - The leaked Commonwealth report about the elections of February 8th (2024) has once again revealed the brazen electoral fraud used to shamelessly steal our mandate. According to the Commonwealth, this report had already been officially submitted to the Government of Pakistan, yet individuals like Sikandar Sultan Raja, who are utterly devoid of conscience, played a central role not only in facilitating electoral theft but also in concealing it. The law in Pakistan prescribes severe punishment for election fraud: Article 6 of the Constitution applies. However, every law in our country is currently rendered meaningless, except the ‘Asim Law’.

Individuals like Liaquat Chattha are commendable who prioritized the voice of their conscience over jobs and titles. After this theft, a massacre was perpetrated, and the 26th Constitutional Amendment was imposed. The judges who spoke up against the amendment also deserve to be appreciated.

The time for accepting a government that originated from a rigged election as legitimate is over. That is why resignations from the Senate and parliamentary committees have been tendered.

My message to my party's parliamentarians is to neither fear the ‘Asim Law’ imposed upon the country, nor the prospect of imprisonment. A single individual seeks to crush you merely to satisfy his own lust for power. The more you fear them, the more they will suppress you. You are standing on the side of truth, and truth gives man courage. Victory belongs only to the truth.”

A false flag operation is being porchestrated along the lines of May 9th (2023) against Afghans and people of the tribal areas. Relations with Afghanistan have been deliberately sabotaged since Asim Munir assumed charge, with continuous provocations to push them into war with Pakistan, all to appease the lobby that opposes the current Afghan government and to project himself before the West as the supposed ‘savior’.

First, grave threats were issued to the Afghan government; then, in blatant violation of religious, moral, and international refugee rights, Afghan brothers who had been residing in Pakistan for three generations were forcibly expelled. Then attacks were launched on Afghan soil, and now, operations have been initiated in the tribal areas under the pretext that ‘terrorists have arrived’.

Because of these policies, our own people are being martyred everywhere: police personnel, soldiers, and innocent civilians being martyred are all our own. This approach can never establish peace. Lasting peace only comes through dialogue.

Now, for the establishment of peace in Afghanistan and the tribal regions, three stakeholders must necessarily be brought together. First, the people of Pakistan’s tribal areas; second, the Afghan government; and third, the Afghan people. No operation can succeed without the cooperation of these three stakeholders, nor can any sustainable solution be found.

What is being attempted in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa is merely to discredit the PTI government. A military operation will only fuel further terrorism, and as the police are diverted to counter rising terrorism, governance and law-and-order will collapse. Such policies were also adopted during the tenure of the ANP government.

All MPAs, MNAs, and Senators of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa must sit together with the Chief Minister to urgently resolve the challenges of the province. Special measures must be taken to maintain peace in those areas recently affected by floods.

Our allies, under the leadership of Mahmood Khan Achakzai, should take a peace delegation to Afghanistan and seek solutions through dialogue.”
My so-called trial in Adiala Jail is not being conducted by a judge but by an ISI Colonel, who takes instructions directly from the Army Chief, Asim Munir. This is a military trial, not a civilian one.

Everything in Pakistan today is being done under Asim Law, with the Constitution and legal framework in shreds. Over three hundred fabricated cases have been registered against me, all of which I am facing. I will emerge with justice from the courts without making any deal. Every form of oppression has been inflicted upon our party. My wife and I would be freed today if cases were decided on merit. All our human rights have been violated. We are deprived even of the basic facilities granted to ordinary prisoners. My books are withheld, and in eight months I was allowed to speak to my children only once.

The judges in my cases hold no authority; they cannot conduct the trials independently. Their decisions are dictated by a Colonel, who merely executes the orders of Asim Munir.

I instruct my entire party to remain united. This oppressive system cannot endure for long. It is essential that all of you retweet posts from my account, in a clear message of unity and alignment.

A grand public rally must be announced in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, where participants from across the country can stand together against the darkness that engulfs us."
